TICKETS ON SALE FOR STUDENT SEASONAL SPECTACULAR

Tickets go on sale today for Yeovil College's eagerly anticipated annual Christmas Revue. Featuring a broad mix of song, dance and theatre, there is something for everyone in the show, which is taking place on Monday 8th December 2008 in the Main Hall at 7pm.

The evening will showcase a selection of work produced by students and staff in the last few months, including music, dance and theatrical pieces. First and second year students completing BTEC and A Level courses in Performing Arts, Acting, Dance and Music Practice will be taking part.

The show will include a special preview of the much anticipated 2009 College production, 'Night and Day'. Written by Programme Coordinator Philip Grant, this brand new play is set in a cabaret nightclub. The cast will perform a number of extracts from the show at the Christmas Revue, giving a tantalising glimpse of the performances to come.

Student dance groups 4DR Physical Theatre and 5 Feat Dance Company will present work, as well Somerset's new integrated dance company, New Rhythms.

The Revue will also feature a cross-section of music. The College Choir will be singing a selection of Christmas songs and student bands Nik and the Sam Lloyd Experience will be performing acoustic sets.

Head of Creative and Performing Arts Lloyd Richards said "We are very excited about this show. It's the first time this year students from a range of performance courses will come together to work on one large project. The Christmas Revue provides them with an opportunity to perform in front of a large audience, showcasing the wealth of talent nurtured and developed within the College. The students and staff have put a lot of hard work into this year's show and I have no doubt it will once again be a highlight of the College events calendar."

The Christmas Revue starts at 7pm on Monday 8th December 2008 in the College's Main Hall. Tickets are available from Monday 1st December 2008 at £5 each (£4 for concessions). Contact the College on 01935 845312 for more information or tickets.
