COLLEGE STUDENTS CELEBRATE SUCCESS

Around 250 students, family, friends, local employers and special guests including Mayor of Yeovil Wes Read gathered at the Digby Hall in Sherborne recently to celebrate the achievements of students from Hospitality, Hair and Beauty courses.

Students were congratulated for their achievements after another year of hard work and in particular students were recognised for their commitment and determination in completing qualifications and displaying particular skills and enthusiasm during their chosen course.

31 awards were given in total including Student of the Year awards, Most Progress Award, Therapist of Excellence and Peer of the Year amongst many others. Many awards were kindly sponsored by local employers including Environ Skincare, Aston & Fincher, Sally's, Viceroy Restaurant, AJ Supplies, YTFC and The Mayor of Yeovil. Also Harmony Heath & Beauty in Crewkerne, Dean Fix, Northover Manor Hotel, Fudges Bakery, Fine Foods and the Hive in Burton Bradstock.

Principal James Hampton said "This time of year is always very rewarding when we can see the results of so much hard work over the last year and the opportunity to invite friends and family to share in our student celebrations. This is another example of a great evening and shows both the commitment and determination of our staff in ensuring that our student's receive the very best support and training throughout the year."

Jenny Workman, Programme Area Co-ordinator for Beauty said "The Student of the Year Awards this year were outstanding and we congratulate them all on their achievements. We wish them all the very best for their future employment."

Guests enjoyed an evening of awards presentations and were also treated to a number of songs performed by Beauty student Kayleigh Degregorio, followed by a buffet and evening of music, dancing and casino.
