FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE OF ISSUE: MONDAY 26TH JANUARY 2009

PURE BEAUTY SALON HOLDS FREE OPEN DAY

Between 9.00 and 3.30 on Thursday 5th February, the Pure Beauty salon at Yeovil College is throwing open its doors for a public open day.

A range of free taster treatments will be on offer all day, provided by our excellent trainees using top-of-the-range salon beauty products.

Visitors can choose from a free mini-manicure, mini-facial or back, neck and shoulder massage.

Representatives from Environ Skin Care, OPI Nail Treatments and Jane Iredale will also be on hand all day, offering skin analyses free of charge and goodie bags.

Jennie Workman, Programme Area Co-Ordinator for Beauty courses, said "We are absolutely delighted to be holding this open day. We've had lots of bookings already and we're looking forward to welcoming newcomers who haven't tried Pure Beauty before. We're also delighted to have the support of the Mayor, Councillor Wes Read, College Principal James Hampton and other senior members of the College. I'm sure everyone will enjoy their experience of the salon and be back again soon."

To book your appointment at Pure Beauty, please call 01935 845357.

Pure Beauty is Yeovil College's training salon. It is open to students, College staff and external clients and offers an extensive range of professional treatments including facials, waxing, manicures and pedicures, electrical facials and body treatments. All treatments will be carried out by high quality trainees, who are supervised by very experienced and fully qualified staff. We use a wide range of professional products such as Environ skincare, the Hara range, O.P.I nail care and Jane Iredale mineral Make-up range. We also have a retail section within the salon so you can purchase products to use at home.
