YEOVIL COLLEGE RECEIVES EXCELLENT REPORT FOR COURSES

Yeovil College is delighted to announce that it has been given an excellent external verification report from The British Institute of Inn Keeping for The National Certificate for Door Supervisors and National Certificate for Personal Licence Holders courses delivered over the past year.

The verifier has judged Yeovil College to have “outstanding quality procedures and communication and administrative systems in place” and has therefore awarded the College an overall Grade 1 (Outstanding) within the quality assurance report.

Faculty Director for Business & Hospitality Peta Fraser said; ‘The excellent report given to Yeovil College by the BII (British Institute of Inn Keeping) acknowledges the hard work and dedication from the members of the teaching team. It is wonderful for staff to be recognised for their success and excellent results within the National Certificate for Door Supervisors and National Certificate for Personal Licence Holders courses ‘

This news follows the recent success of the Door Supervisor students who achieved 100% pass rate against the national average of 96%.

For details of the Door Supervisors and the Personal Licence Holders courses please contact Yeovil College on 01935 423921 or visit our website www.yeovil.ac.uk.
