YEOVIL ARE SOMERSET HOCKEY CHAMPIONS

HOCKEY

Yeovil College's Ladies Hockey team have retained their title as Somerset Colleges Indoor Hockey Champions following a tournament held at Somerset College of Art and Technology in Taunton. Yeovil's team put in a great performance, winning against Richard Huish College's First and Second. In Yeovil's first game, Harriet White made some great saves to keep the opposition First team at bay. Milly Bonney, Erin Kilaspy and Alice Turnock also worked tirelessly, taking every opportunity to shoot, and were causing great problems for the Huish defence. The game's final score was 4 – 2 to Yeovil. In their second game, against Richard Huish's Second team, Yeovil completely dominated the game. They worked hard and controlled all areas of the court. Hannah Hackershall performed outstanding in defence. At the final whistle, Yeovil took the game 6 – 0 and the title of Champions.

FOOTBALL

The Ladies Football team put in a great team performance against Richard Huish College this week, with the game ending in a draw 4 – 4. Goals came from Natalie Hughes, Aimee Rowe, Emily Casey and Paige Steninger.

RUGBY

The Ladies Rugby team were competing in the second round of the British Colleges' Cup competition this week. The event, hosted by Peter Symonds College in Winchester, also saw teams from Brokenhurst and Worthing Colleges competing for a place in the national final. Yeovil's first opponents were Worthing College, who proved to be fierce opponents. Worthing seized every opportunity to break through Yeovil's passing game and ultimately won 15 – 0. Next, Yeovil played the hosts, Peter Symonds College. Yeovil put in some very effective passages of play which gave Holly Edmonds a clear run to score. Ellie Sutherland converted well to give Yeovil a little bit of breathing space. Peter Symonds reacted quickly and scored a try themselves, but were unable to convert. Yeovil put the pressure on, overwhelming the Peter Symonds' defence. Holly Edmonds again penetrated the Peter Symonds defence and scored another try. Ultimately, Yeovil won the game 12 – 5, ensuring a place in the grand final in two weeks time.

In the Men's Rugby, Yeovil College played Poole Grammar at home. It was a great game that saw both teams challenging for the lead. In the end, Yeovil edged passed Poole Grammar to take the win 13 – 10.
