SPORT REPORT

CRICKET

The Men's Cricket team played against Sexey's School, Bruton, this week. The Yeovil team played well and won by 20 runs. Yeovil's final results were:

Yeovil College 137 – 6 20 overs

Lee Grant (43), Tom Mitchell (22), Richard Porter (14) and Will Ireland (12).

Sexey's Bruton 117 all out

Good results were achieved by Lee Grant (3 – 15), James Bell (2 – 20) and Callum Gundry (2 – 22).

ROUNDERS

The Ladies Rounders team took part in the Somerset Colleges' Rounder's Tournament at Bridgwater College this week. Their first round game was against Bridgwater College and was a very close match. Ultimately, the Yeovil ladies lost narrowly 12 – 13.5. Yeovil then faced Richard Huish College, who put in a very strong performance to win the game 5 – 20.5. Yeovil College ultimately took third place in the tournament.

FOOTBALL

The Men's Football First team were up against Bridgwater College in the final of the Somerset Football Association Under-19 Colleges Trophy. In previous rounds, Yeovil had beaten Strode and Richard Huish colleges.

Played at Wells Football Club, the Bridgwater-Yeovil game was drawn 1-1 at half time. Yeovil's goal came from a penalty and was converted by Harry Montacute. Yeovil dominated the first half but unfortunately were unable to convert possession into goals. During the second half, Bridgwater started to take control. The final score was 1 – 4 to Bridgwater at the final whistle, meaning that Yeovil unfortunately lost the trophy that they won last year despite a hard-fought match.
